Extortion Brings Man Year in Jail

Admits Attempt To Get $10,000 From Businessman

Stating "Edmonton has been wonderfully free from this sort of thing in the past," Magistrate A. L. Miller today sentenced a 22-year-old city man to one year in jail for extortion.

William Nykforuk, 1017 1st avenue, admitted in court shortly after his arrest last night that he had extorted $10,000 from Earl E. Saunders, 976 11th street, by threatening to burn his house down.

PHONES CALLS, LETTERS Del-Sgt James E. Peterson told court at the trial that between March 1 and March 24 accused had made several telephone calls and had written two letters threatening to burn "certain districts" about Saunders to police.

McLaren was arrested the night of March 24 by detectives accused near the second rendezvous arranged between accused and his victim for the "pay-off."

First meeting for the payment of the "bush" money was arranged for March 23. This called for McLaren to leave a parcel containing $2,000—actually three times the amount McLaren had actually secured's rooming-house.

PLAN IS FOILED Plan was foiled and police misgotten when McLaren, the true owner came out to investigate the noise of the truck door opening.

Just before sunset, Magistrate McLaren said Edmonton could do without this type of crime and a severe sentence might serve as a warning to others.

Frost-Free Night in City Edmonton enjoyed its first frost-free night of the year last night when the mercury failed to drop below 32 above.

Temperatures throughout the province yesterday were all above 40 degrees mark again, warmest at Calgary, 52 above, and lowest at Regina, 32 above.

Yellowhead Route Fight Said Still Going Strong

The fight for the Yellowhead route of the Trans-Canada Highway is not yet lost.

Undated by Premier E. C. Manning's remarks in the legislature yesterday that a protest train to Ottawa would be futile, E. T. Love, secretary-treasurer for the Trans-Canada Highway System Association said today that arguments for the Kicking Horse Pass are far from convincing.

Officials of the provincial and dominion governments cannot help but be aware of the advantage of the Yellowhead route as compared with either of the other two routes proposed for western Canada," he declared. "It offers lowest elevation, least snowfall and greatest population. It's the central route and from a military standpoint the most important of all."

THREE HIGHWAY STAND Speaking of Mr. Manning's remarks that Alberta would be served ultimately with three candidate routes across the province and that there was little difference in the cost of the routes, Mr. Love declared that "Mr. Manning knows that if British Columbia and Saskatchewan do not build the Yellowhead route, the benefits of Alberta will run into the mud on both shoulders."

Another interval has been opened in the mud on the Yellowhead route, Mr. Love said, when the federal government finally agreed to build the Trans-Canada Highway over the Kicking Horse Pass route. It will mean tearing up a good highway, much of which has been hard-surfaced.

"Meanwhile," said Mr. Love, "we central Alberta are still traveling in the mud on the Yellowhead route."

POPULATION CITED Quoting from a report prepared for the association by the Sanford Evans Statistical Service, Mr. Love said that 29 per cent of the citizens of Alberta reside north of the highway line between the Kicking Horse and Yellowhead routes.

"It is now fully apparent," he said, "that this citizen majority must vigorously assert itself in an uncertain manner in this province's highway business."

ROCHESTER, Minn., March 30.—Thin, wan and tired, Maisie O'Driscoll today faced a lengthy examination by American psychiatrists.

But she and her patient young mother, although thoroughly weary of the long clinical tests and tedious waiting periods are hoping for the best and keep waiting and guessing," she added.

It is no one does not hide her fear that the doctor's tests will be in thinking the illness, which has been diagnosed as a form of brain disease, is caused by a tumor of the brain.

If an operation to remove a possible obstruction is deemed necessary by the authorities at the clinic, Mrs. O'Driscoll will wire for her husband.

OTTAWA, March 30.—(CP)—Senator John T. Haig, Progressive Conservative leader, yesterday described the British people as "hard traders."

He made the remark during a senate debate on the government's bill to control the export of goods. He said the British people are "hard traders" because they are so keen to get their goods out of the country.

Nevertheless, he didn't say that Canadian farmers should have to "subsidize those people to make a policy we don't believe in."

"We in western Canada have got to have European market for the products of our country," said Senator Haig, depicting United Kingdom as "a hard trader."

RAPS GARDNER

Senator R. B. Harper (P-C-Saskatchewan) said Agriculture Minister Gardiner with using the bill for political purposes.

He said the issue of western Canada had been left with "lowering the cost of living for the rest of Canada."

At a time when Canada was on the point of bringing in a new province in the east "it would be a sad day if we were losing it in the west."

Rate Scheme Urged by CPR

OTTAWA, March 30.—(CP)—A new rate-making system for Canadian railways was urged on the Board of Transport Commissioners yesterday by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Closing out its argument for higher freight rates, the company proposed that the board establish a rate-of-return on rail investment for the setting of freight loads—annual earnings of about 35-40 per cent.

The rate-of-return system, used in some utilities, operates on the establishment of a property investment base for the company concerned. The regulatory body then determines a "fair" percentage return on this valuation and sets rates accordingly.

Spain, Portugal End Negotiations

MADRID, March 30.—(AP)—Spain and Portugal have completed negotiations which will permit the Portuguese to sign the North Atlantic Security Alliance, a Spanish foreign ministry spokesman said today. The 10 days of negotiations ended Monday.

Many U.S. Prices Take Sharp Dip

Some Radios Down By Half And Commodity Prices Follow

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—A new series of retail price cuts were laid before the United States consumer today, further clipping inflation's wings.

They stretched the dollar a little farther. But most of the reductions were from high-inflation levels and many of them were small.

Automobiles and accessories, radios, refrigerators and kitchen ranges were among the wide variety of items affected.

Continued reductions in such basic commodities as lead, copper and steel included further cuts in manufactured goods might be made.

The midwestern spring catalog of Sears, Roebuck and Company featured "many price reductions in all lines." Even ice cream was down a nickel—three cents a quart in Philadelphia.

Radios showed the biggest drop. Westinghouse Electric chopped 20 to 30 per cent off nine home model sets. That's as much as $20 on a cash basis.

CAR PRICES DOWN

Kelvinator made a move to make $100 to $200 off its car prices. Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Company, said he saw a "possible" reduction in Ford's.

Willing to sacrifice a little for a big sale, the company offered $130 off its $230.50 automobile battery and up to $2 off large automotive types.

Standard Oil Company of Indiana knocked one-half cent a gallon off tank prices on acetone, kerosene and diesel fuels and a trifling discount off furnace oil.

James and Laughlin Steel Corporation reduced the price of hot rolled bars and structural shapes by as much as $4 a ton. But it didn't affect the steel industry's major price structure since James and Laughlin had topped other general producers on those lines.

Manitoba Seeks More U.K. Trade

WINNIPEG, March 30.—(CP)—The Manitoba legislature yesterday passed a resolution looking to the encouragement of larger imports from the United Kingdom.

The resolution, sponsored by T. H. McPherson (L-P-B-M), called for the establishment of a committee to study the house to urge the federal government to encourage these imports on the grounds that prairie agriculture's surplus always has found markets in the United Kingdom and that the prosperity of the farmers of Manitoba and the other prairie provinces depended largely upon the continuation of these markets.

VANCOUVER, March 30.—(CP)—Grouse reported yesterday that frost has caused heavy damage to Fraser Valley fruit and vegetable crops, with losses as high as 80 per cent suffered in the loganberry crop.

Vegetables and vegetable seeds are reported to have suffered about 10 per cent. Serious damage in size is expected in strawberry crops in several areas.

John Webster, of the provincial agriculture department, said weather and flood conditions have seen increase in imports from eastern Canada.

He expects the eastern supply will be cut by 10 per cent and B.C. will have to turn to the United States for vegetables until local growers can get their produce on the market.

New Air Officer Sees No Immediate Changes

Air Vice-Marshal Hugh L. Campbell believes close co-operation among Canada's three military services is necessary for the "security and welfare of the country."

In an interview today, the new Air Officer Commanding, Northwest Air Command, stressed necessity of the Army, Navy and Air Force working as a team.

"And I believe that wartime experiences of the three services has shown the need for this," he said. "It's something which has grown and developed through mutual effort."

The 41-year-old ranking officer, who officially takes over command of NWAC on returning from AVM K. Guthrie at headquarters on Friday, also pointed out that from the point of economy, intra-service coordination is an urgent necessity.

The public's money should be expended wisely," he continued. "Finance is of utmost consideration in all military planning."

AVM Campbell did not reveal any future changes in operation or administration policy at Northwest Air Command, saying that he believes the existing setup at NWAC is "satisfactory."

The ranking officer recently returned to Canada from England where he was attached with the Imperial Defence College. AVM Campbell has been with the RCAF since 1931, following his graduation from the University of New Brunswick.

New City Assessment Scheme Is Explained

Re-assessment of Edmonton land values will be reflected in taxes next year if completed in time, and of buildings in 1951. Re-assessment starts May 1.

Until the city has been completely surveyed in each instance, present assessment will remain in effect.

Present basis of taxation will be continued. Property will be taxed on 100 per cent of assessment while improved areas will be assessed on 80 per cent of value for commercial structures and 50 per cent for residences.

ASSESSMENTS UPPED

Maintenance, repair, and beautification of property will not be reflected in increased assessment, John MacDonald, recently-appointed assessor and collector, emphasized.

Additional alterations or improvements which increase property values will up assessment.

Through a new charter amendment land may be assessed independently of buildings. Previously assessment on buildings was determined in relation to land, though values were stated separately.

MONEY FACTORS

Assessment of buildings requires many factors to be considered, and 24,352 residences and 2,952 non-residential buildings in the city will be inspected, Mr. MacDonald stated.

Last assessment survey was made in 1932-33.

Since that time assessments have been altered only from building permits. Facts were examined to permit re-examination to determine the assessor's opinion was accurate.

In future, complete facts will be required, and assessment will proceed continuously.

Depreciation tables will be applied to residential buildings, but in connection with it are only new construction.

MORE EQUITABLE

"Assessment in 1932 and 1933 was based on values at that time," said Mr. MacDonald, "but think everyone agrees a more equitable basis of assessment should now be established."

Business tax, based on a graduated percentage of total sales, will remain the same, but will show increase because of rise in rents.

It is not known how much taxes will be increased by re-assessment. Whether re-assessment will be completed in time depends on the amount of help the assessor's office obtains, Mr. MacDonald said.

Many Building Permits Issued For Construction

Extensive alterations will be made to the kitchen facilities at the Camwell hospital.

Permit for $12,000 covering alterations was issued by the city architect today. Public Construction Co. has been assigned the contract for the project.

Permits were issued to John Perketto, 11604 91 street, for the erection of 11 houses at an estimated cost of $75,000.

Four of the houses will be erected in the 117 block on 120 street, five in the 117 block on 130 street and one each at 1204, 117 avenue and 117 avenue and 129 street.

Western Supplies Ltd. purchased property on the east side of 108 street north of 105 avenue for $8,000.

Rock Refractories, 10605 92 street, bought a lot on the west side of 97 street north of 104 avenue on which it will erect a $20,000 store and apartment building.

Man Suffers Severe Burns

An Edmonton man was severely burned about the face and body this morning when a heater ignited some gasoline in the Standard service station, 10th and 100 street.

He is Gordon J. Reichel, employee of a nearby cut car lot who was in the service station at the time of the fire. He was rushed to Royal Alexandra hospital in a private car. Extent of the burns was not immediately known.

The fire occurred about 8:30 a.m. when workers at the garage were cleaning the gas line of a truck with a pressure hose. The pressure forced gas out near a heater by which Reichel was standing.

The flames were quickly put out by fire extinguishers and a private car. Extent of the building was damaged.

MLAs Clash Over Insurance Bill

Wray Charges Gov't Trying To Shield Legislature Members

Insurance companies in Alberta will be required to have $50,000 cash on hand before insurance can be sold.

New legislation results from legislative approval yesterday of a Liberal Finance proposal.

The recommendation was made in final sessions of the legislature yesterday by Hugh John MacDonald, Calgary Liberal.

House also approved an amendment to the Alberta Insurance Act giving provincial secretary authority to appoint a mediator for any insurance company which is in difficulties.

Debate on other Wray, Banfill, Cochrane member, charged that the amendment was designed to shield activities of MLAs interested in the Canada West Insurance Company.

About $23,000,000 was earmarked for defence purposes, the supplementary estimates showed. This brought defence spending for the 1948-49 year to some $275,000,000, in comparison with the $252,000,000 forecast for the coming year.
NOT PREVIOUSLY COUNTED
Yesterday's supplementary estimates, not counted upon when the government drew up its estimated supplementary estimates a year ago, raised to $2,200,000 the total expenses for the 1948-49 period.

Estimates of expenditures for the 1949-50 fiscal year, tabled about two weeks ago, total $2,217,673,131. They will be counted before the current session of parliament ends, however, by such items as $20,000,000 for spending in the new province of Newfoundland. Further defence expenditures can also be expected.

In addition to the large amount for national defence in today's estimates, the following were included for agriculture: $1,763,174; finance, $1,763,174; health, $1,763,174; transport and commerce, $1,763,174; and government enterprises, $1,763,174. As the C.N.R. and T.C.A. $1,763,174.

WHEAT BOARD COSTS

Most of the finance and trade and commerce values were for reimbursements in the Canadian Wheat Board for payments it had made to grain and flour growers. Nearly all of the vote for government enterprises was to help pay off last year's C.N.R. debt.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent then moved that the House go into committee of supply to consider these estimates before doing an amendment exercised their right to be allowed to go forward. They are to be passed before the House goes into committee of supply.

CROP DISASTER SEEN

The spectre of a 1949 crop disaster was thrown before the commonsense of John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre, who criticized the government for failure to irrigate large areas of Saskatchewan prairie by damming the South Saskatchewan river.
The prospect of a grasshopper plague was also an aid in urgent importance in the 1949-50 vision of a $60,000,000 project which has been received for the "ditch and dam" of government banking.
Defence Minister Brooke Claxton said there would be a full and thorough investigation of the incidents about ships of the Royal Canadian Navy when they returned to port. He said it was not considered appropriate to refer the matter to parliamentary committee but the investigating board would include non-military personnel.

The glass scene was not a snake, but a legless lizard.

THROUGH ICE

4-Year-Old
Saves Life
Of Friend

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., March 30.—(CP)—Little Wendy Culp, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Culp of Lethbridge, is the toast of this cool morning in the Crow's Nest Pass today.
It was disclosed yesterday that the youngster rescued her playmate Sharon Downey, age four, from drowning recently. The two little girls were playing on the ice of the Crow's Nest River when it gave way under Sharon. Wendy, eight months younger than her playmate, immediately went to Sharon's assistance and pulled her back onto the ice.
First word of what had happened was disclosed when Wendy brought Sharon to the nearby home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Culp. Wendy nonchalantly said "Sharon fell in the river and I pulled her out."

The word Eskimo, but in the Algonquin Indian word meaning "eaters of raw fish."

U.K. Faces Cut In Meat Rations

Argentine Delays Deliveries And Asks Higher Price

LONDON, March 30.—(Reuters)—Britain will cut her domestic meat ration still more drastically rather than submit to Argentine demands for higher prices, parliamentary quarters believed here today.

The meat ration has been cut twice in two months because of Argentina's failure to supply the full quantity under the meat contract in the 1948 agreement.

At all-time low

Britain's meat ration now is at the all-time low figure of 84 worth of fresh meat and 24 worth of canned meat.

Britain is short by about 75,000 tons of the total of 420,000 tons provided for in the 12-month contract but some of this quantity may be in transit. The Argentine agreement expires next Thursday.

Argentina is proposing about double the present price of about £78 a ton for the unfilled remainder of supplies under the old agreement.

Such a demand would be interpreted here as a breach of the Argentine agreement.

A cessation of meat supplies from the Argentine after Thursday would clearly be considered preferable here to compliance with the new demand.

REFUSES TO COMPLY

Britain has made it clear that she will not pay dollars for meat; will not submit to exorbitant prices and will not agree to unreasonable conditions.

She wants to balance meat purchases by the supply of goods to Argentina.

Lives on this basis price will continue to be the crucial factor governing a new meat contract.

Argentina has supplied Britain with a list of between 1,000 and 1,500 commodities which she needs. These range from whisky to oil, coal and machinery.

LIMITATIONS SEEN

Britain would willingly supply a large number of the commodities specified, though her obligations under European Economic Co-operation might limit her in certain directions notably steel and coal.

The government has communicated to Sir John Kinnaird, British ambassador in Argentina, a memorandum in Argentina, a pre-

EXECUTIVES ARE WORLD'S LOVELIEST MAN

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(CP)—Because "nobody loves an executive," the Association of American Executives has been formed to help out "the most neglected group in American life."

That's what Carl Monsees, one of the group's founders, calls his fellow executive.

The workers think the executive is a hard man, a Simon Legree in tweeds, Monsees says. And on the other hand, the directors think he's a soft man, not quick enough in picking up the company's profits.

In a spot like that, Monsees says, he's the loveliest man in the world.

liminary list of commodities which Britain can supply.

The government will have difficulty backing in parliament and the country in any action it takes to safeguard its position.

Flood Control Plan Asked

OTTAWA, March 30.—(CP)—A program for flood control, power development, and irrigation along British Columbia's Fraser river was requested in the Commons last night by E. D. Fulton (PC-Kamloops).

Speaking on a motion to go into supply, he conceded that some work was being done now on dikes along the lower Fraser, but said it was not enough to prevent a repetition of the disastrous floods of last year.

The proper way to control the floods was by dams on the upper reaches of the river. Dikes at the lower branches would never be sufficient.

He suggested that flood control and power development should go hand-in-hand.

He had written to Works Minister Fourrier and it was apparent from the minister's reply that no concrete action would be taken until 1950. With a danger of renewed flooding this year, this was not sufficient.

The board established to control floods was operating at a snail's pace.

Newfoundland Road To Raise CN Deficit

OTTAWA, March 30.—(CP)—The Canadian National Railways, which showed a $33,532,000 deficit in 1948, will have "substantial" losses in 1949 through assumption of the Newfoundland railway, R. C. Vaughan, president of the company, said yesterday.

Mr. Vaughan told the common railway committee—making its annual study of the CNR report—that he had no figures immediately available to show what the losses will be, or to show what deficits the Newfoundland railway has shown in the past.

He was questioned by Harry Jackson (PC-Toronto-Rosedale) who suggested the CNR should be operated as a business and not loaded with uncommensurate "embarrassments" which made the company look inefficient.

Mr. Vaughan said the company had nothing to do with assuming operation of the island system. The company was not asked to undertake any system which would show a loss.

Mr. Jackson and A. M. Nicholson (CPC-Mackenzie) said they thought the CNR should be operated as a business and not loaded with uncommensurate "embarrassments" which made the company look inefficient.

Mr. Vaughan said the company had been trying to get the committee to recognize this for years, by increasing its capitalization.

And Mr. Jackson, interjected Transport Minister Christie, "has always been opposed to it."

Mr. Vaughan said the company did not propose to change the narrow gauge rail equipment of the new province's CNR line.

The smaller gauge track could be serviced by Newfoundland shops and there would be "no justification" for a change-over.

OIL USE DISCUSSED

As the committee's talk turned to new equipment, the talk shifted to diesel engines.

Mr. Vaughan said the CNR was constantly shifting more and more to the oil-burning engines and equipment was replaced. The diesels were more economical in heavy-work areas than steam locomotives because they required less attention between jobs.

Since the new oil discoveries in Alberta, the CNR was concentrating diesel in the west. A further 15 steam locomotives in the Edmonton area were being converted from coal to oil. However, the relative expense as between coal and oil depended on the prices of these products at different points.

Leaves Service

OTTAWA, March 30.—(CP)—Dr. Charles P. Brown, Ottawa and Brant County Ont., retired yesterday as assistant director of health services in the federal health department, after 35 years in government service.

Along Moonlight Bay

On the Kananaskis Road at Lake Wakarusa lies Moonlight Bay. It is a core of natural beauty, just a short drive from the city and it offers rest, relaxation and the exhilaration of outdoor sports.

Moonlight Bay has the magnificence and splendour of national park, and it's so near that the average tourist and traveler can't resist the romantic call of the quiet charm.

But see Moonlight Bay through the eyes of an under-privileged child or a tired mother who couldn't possibly afford a holiday at the lake, and you'll see Moonlight Bay in all its glory.

It is here that All Peoples' Mission operated by the United Church of Canada, holds its summer camps for boys and girls, for mothers and babies, and young people's groups. No questions of creed or color are asked. All are neighbors. SPORT

The Name is Smith

The way Sid Smith, up from Pittsburgh in a trouble-shooter role, monopolized the scoring as Toronto whopped Boston Bruins 2-1 in Hoggton last night, made something of a prophet of "Bud" Foley.

Foley was the centre of a discussion group yesterday afternoon, most of the chatter having to do with hockey, and the American league in particular. Merits of this player and that came in for a cutting up and finally Smith's name was dropped into the conversation.

"There's a real player, one who can do everything," Foley, onetime EAC junior star who is paying a visit at this time, said enthusiastically.

"I can't understand why Toronto doesn't take him from Pittsburgh for keeps. Every now and then they send for Mackell or Dawes or 'Tod' Sloan or some other guy who can't carry Smith's other stick."

"It just doesn't make sense," he concluded.

They 'Loved' Him in Washington

Foley, of course, would not go to know about his friend's Stanley cup hero. Likewise he would respect his talents. Smith, as evidenced by his point total of 112, including 55 goals, spent most of the current American Hockey league campaign getting in the hair of the circuit's defences.

And in this respect he had just as much of a picnic at the expense of the Washington rearguard of Foley and associates as he did with the knock-bragging drawing those twice-monthly paychecks at Buffalo, Providence, Cleveland and other AHL centres.

"We did our best with the guy. But as often as not he made it tough for us and still thought for our goal-keeper," Foley grinned.

Well, by this time Boston's Frank (Mr. Zero) Brimsek and the defences who operate in front of him likewise will have a brand new respect for Mr. Smith. Otherwise will be less inclined to scoff at the fat point total he put together for the Smokey City Hornets.

Then when it's remembered that Mackell reached out for the third goal with a pair by Smith, one can appreciate that it was a great night for the AHL.

World Series in Cards

There seems little reason to doubt but that within five years the Smiths, Mackells, Sloans and such of those future seasons will have a long and hard back and call of a Stanley cup-neg National league aggression. In hockey's inner circles the betting is that by that time the American sport will have taken unto itself the status of a major league.

Obviously such cities as Pittsburgh, Washington, St. Louis and Cleveland, already boasting major league baseball franchises, are waiting longer for anything but a so-called best that the puck game has to offer.

Besides there's plenty of money in AHL. Bank-accounts with John Harris, Al Sulphin and other franchise operators having all they'll ever need to go "high league" when the time comes.

Yep, seems like by 1954 or so hockey will have its own World Series.

Fabulous Beau Jack Now A 'Broke' Man

By Vic Morris, Jr.

MONTREAL, March 30—(CP)—Beau Jack, the Georgia neophyte who spun gobs of turntables to the tune of a million and a half dollars in 1948, is now a "broke" man. His bank book shows a balance of $275.46.

Beau's story, unfolded by Elmer (Colonel) Herald in a recent issue of the magazine, appeared to be exaggerated, but those checks received by Beau actually ended up with a small bank account plus a broken record.

Beau's share of the fabulous gains was more than a quarter million dollars.

WOMEN DIDN'T HELP

Chick Wargiles, the Beau's manager, said "He was serious but they were just out to take his money and one by one they left him when they thought he was broke. The last night he was left with three children. Beau has $200 a month for their support and $2,500 a year allowance."

Beau is on the comeback track. He has his sights set on the chicken farm in northern New York state where he'll buy just as soon as he gets the money.

A BOUGET

It is said that a hockey referee on the bench during the game between Montreal and Boston last night was so impressed by Beau's play that he gave him a $100 bonus.

Cardinal Hopeless See How It's Done

Red Wings Square Series By Topping Habitants 3-1

MONTREAL, March 30—(CP)—Detroit Red Wings, playing clever hockey with Gordie Howe in the starring role, defeated Montreal Canadiens 3-1 last night and evened their semi-final Stanley Cup series at two games each.

Before a crowd of 11,225, some of the spectators in shirt sleeves in the terrific heat of the Forum, Wings spotted Canadiens the first goal and then roared back to count one in each frame.

Red Kelly scored Detroit's opening goal in the first period after a cross-check by McLaughlin. The Canadiens had counted for the first time.

The Montrealers could not hang on their lead but made a wonderful drive to catch up.

RUGGED GOING

Wings in Detroit 3-2 in the third last period when players of both sides waded viciously in the heat and rugged game.

Final penalty count showed five against Detroit and seven against Montreal. All minors. None of the four goals in the third period was scored by a player who was in the penalty box was occupied although for more than a minute in the first period.

Smith 'Fair-Haired' Leaf As Boston Beats by 3-1

MAPLE LEAF GARDENS, Toronto, March 30.—(CP)—Only Toronto native on the team, 23-year-old Sid Smith came up from the minors last night to lead the world champion Toronto Maple Leafs to a 3-1 victory over Boston and virtually clinch the Stanley Cup semi-final round.

Brought up as a reserve from Pittsburgh Hornets, the American Hockey league scoring champion thrilled 13,386 fans as he scored two of Toronto's three goals and made the play on the other one.

Smith's brilliant effort gave Leafs a three-one lead in games in the first period. Smith's brilliant effort gave Leafs a three-one lead in games in the first period.

As Smith sniped through Bruins' defence in netting goalkeeper Frank Brimsek, Bruins saw their hopes of remaining in the cup but almost vanished as two more of their regulars were added with injuries.

Right winger Jimmy Peters suffered a bruise of the soft tissue of the right ankle, and forward Earl Harkness was checked by Bill Jaska in the first period. In the second period Earl Harkness checked Bill Schmidt and the great centre star suffered a torn muscle in his right side.

Schmidt likely played out the remainder of the series.

The two players will join defencemen Johnny Crawford and the Bruins for tonight's contest. Crawford suffered a severe bruise of the soft tissue of the right ankle, and forward Earl Harkness was checked by Bill Jaska in the first period.

KEEPING THE "IRON HORSE" rolling on the Canadian National Railways and of Edmonton is a colossal job. Giant "service station" at Culler has a 32-gallon engine, house and huge backlogs. Here workman Joe Bile gives the giant passenger locomotive a bath with live steam. This monster will soon be thundering over the rails after an all-round tune-up.

MIGHTY BUT DELICATE, the engine of the "Iron Horse" is a masterpiece of engineering. It is a 32-gallon engine, house and huge backlogs. Here workman Joe Bile gives the giant passenger locomotive a bath with live steam. This monster will soon be thundering over the rails after an all-round tune-up.

SAFETY of passengers and equipment depend on efficient operation of automotive air brakes. Floundering over the rule at multi-minute speeds late this year, Edwin Munro, veteran of 25 years' service on the CNR, crowdfords a brake finger bracket on the driving wheel gear of a new Freight engine in Golden slings. Responsible for keeping more than $1,000,000 worth of equipment rolling, is general foreman of northern yards R. H. Jones.

Flirting May Land Girl Behind 8 Ball

By Dorothy Dix

are love pirates who seek to take married men away from their wives, when there are so many attractive single men who are to be had for the taking?

It is probably the same thing that made the divorcee who was able to leave her husband's home, and take up with her new lover.

It is because the married man represents adventure and the bright face of danger that by such an affair for so many girls.

Other girls make a mistake in having with married men because they think it is a game, a game of cat and mouse, and a game of hide and seek.
